I swear or affirm that I am the legal guardian of the minor I am enrolling in the camp program of the Buffalo Grove Park District, and that I have legal authority to enroll the minor in this program. I acknowledge that I have read the pick-up procedures listed above and realize that my child will only be released to those persons listed above as well as the legal guardians listed on the camp registration form. I understand that if a person not listed above will be picking-up my child/ward on a regular basis, or any of the supplied information above changes, it is my responsibility to submit the changes in writing. I further understand that if a person not listed above is picking-up my child/ward, even one time, it is my responsibility to inform the Camp Site Supervisor in writing. I am fully aware that under no circumstances will the camp program deviate from their stated policies regarding child pick-up.

Date

Self-Arrival (Walk/Bike) and Release Permission Form

I give my child, _____ permission to arrive and leave from _____ on their own and without a legal guardian drop-off or pick-up on the following dates: June 16 – August 1, 2025 or otherwise specified date(s) _____. On these dates, my child will arrive at the program location and at the designated starting time and will be discharged at the same time as all other program participants without any further supervision from program staff. Changes to this permission form must be made in writing and directed to the program supervisor. Without such changes, this form will remain in effect for the duration of the program. Note: Legal guardians must notify the program leader in advance when their child will not be attending the program. On any occasion that a child is expected to attend the program and does not arrive at the start of the program, the program leader will make a reasonable attempt to contact the legal guardian to notify them of the child's absence. However, the park district cannot guarantee that this notification will be made.
